

GIS GEOL 4385 Project Presentations

Presenter name: _____

Project title: _____

Project content	Superb	Effective	Weak	Absent
Introduction: What is your project topic? Presenter provides a clear introduction to the project, states project goals and software utilized, informs audience of geographic location, why the project topic was chosen, why it is interesting, etc.	15	10	5	0
Data sets: How did you prepare? Presenter discusses datasets used in the project: data source, why data was selected, limitations, pros/cons of using the data, unexpected issues that were encountered, etc.	15	10	5	0
Data processing and GIS tasks: What did you do? Presenter discusses the use of various software systems to complete project, documents (with screen captures or figures) particular data processing steps and any tips/tricks that can be shared with the class.	15	10	5	0
GIS product: What did you build? Presenter displays polished final map/visualization/GIS product that primarily satisfies the stated goals. Presenter may distribute GIS product handouts to class.	15	10	5	0
Conclusion: What did you learn? Presenter summarizes total project (triumphs and failures), makes recommendations for improvement and future work.	15	10	5	0

Project content total _____ (75 points)

Visual appeal & product display	Superb	Effective	Weak	Absent
Creativity in use/display of layers	5	3	1	0
Visibility/clarity of data layers	5	3	1	0
Skillful use of software and data layers to guide audience through project	5	3	1	0
Overall quality of the GIS product	5	3	1	0

Visual appeal & product display total _____ (20 points)

Question & Answer	Superb	Effective	Weak	Absent
Willingness to take/answer questions, confidence/knowledge when attempting to answer questions	5	3	1	0

Question and answer total _____ (5 points)

Total points (100 possible): _____

Additional comments: